

Recent Advances in Fair Division

November 5th, 2022

Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, Centre Panthéon, Salle 1

◆ 8:45-9:00 Welcome to participants

□ 9:00-9:45 : Haris Aziz (University of New South Wales)

Best of Both Worlds Fairness

□ 9:45-10:30 : Edith Elkind (University of Oxford)

Mind the Gap: Fair Division with Separation Constraints

◆ 10:30-11:00 Coffee break

□ 11:30-12:15 : Juan D Moreno Terner (Universidad Pablo de Olavide)

The Costs and Benefits of multilingualism

□ 12:15-13:00 : Jean-Jacques Herings (Tilburg University)

An Axiomatization of the Pairwise Netting Proportional Rule in Financial Networks

◆ 13:00-14:00 Lunch

□ 14:00-14:45 : Dominik Peters (Université Paris Dauphine-PSL)

Voting in Participatory Budgeting

□ 14:45-15:30 : Rupert Freeman (University of Virginia)

A New Fairness Criterion for Assignment Mechanisms

◆ 15:30-16:00 Coffee break

□ 16:00-16:45 : Utku Unver (Boston College)

Balancing Affirmative Action with Other Societal Interests: a generalized theory on India's reservation system

□ 16:45-17:30 : Jean-Francois Laslier (Paris School of Economics)

Universalization and Altruism