

The Marie Skłodowska-Curie Innovative Training Network

Economic Policy in Complex Environments has openings for 15 Doctoral Fellowships starting in September 2021

Whom are we looking for Highly motivated doctoral fellows with a genuine interest in

- ✓ a structured, international and interdisciplinary training programme
- ✓ developing and applying computationally intensive methods for economic analysis
- ✓ pursuing challenging research work

A balanced number of female and male doctoral fellows

What we provide

- ✓ An interdisciplinary research agenda with an innovative European joint doctoral training programme
- ✓ Integration into a consortium of seven leading European universities
- ✓ Graduate education at two consortium universities, leading to a double doctoral degree
- ✓ Excellent support and working conditions
- ✓ A stimulating international and research-oriented environment
- ✓ A two-month secondment at a non-academic partner
- ✓ A 36 months full time work contract

Interested www.epoc-itn.eu

